barracks. The 1300 troops who arrived in Winsdorf in February were transferred to the Zossen barracks. Of the latter figure, approximately 400 belong to the Class of 1928. The total of 1800 troops at Zossen are attached to the cadre division in Winsdorf. The breakdown of the 1000 new arrivals in Kummersdorf is not known. The new arrivals are strictly segregated and given intense training. A new order calls for the saluting of all superiors from sergeant up. One recruit who was drafted in Ufa in mid-December 1948 spent four weeks on garrison duty in central USSR and four weeks en route to Germany. New recruits at Kummersdorf are being trained by approximately 100 officers who are all married men. They remained behind when the 7 Guards Cadre Tank Division moved south with all tanks and equipment between 31 January and 7 February.
